

Ramona, the signature Mexican restaurant, celebrates our ancestors' cultural and culinary traditions. Named after NIZUC founder's wife, the restaurant was conceived as a peaceful and refined space to savor genuine Mexican cuisine.

Set in a spectacular setting that opens to the sea with natural stone pavements and a portico from the state of Michoacán that dates back to the XVII century. Memorable details such as the chandeliers, vaulted ceiling, the wine cellar, and a replica of an Augustinian Malinalco Monastery mural from the XVI century embrace you in a warm atmosphere.

Tonight we invite you to experience a sensory journey through our heritage and culinary traditions from North to South Mexico, from pre-Hispanic to modern. At Ramona, traditional flavors from our ancestors come to life with a contemporary twist.

Discover true delight in each of our dishes' vibrant flavors and aromas for a memorable dining experience.
